Odd Postoffice Names.

Kentucky is said to hold the record of all the States in the Union for towns with odd and unusual names, and judging from some of these names, which were discovered by the stenographers at the democratic State campaign headquarters this record seems to be well established and deserved. One of the stenographers, as he came to an unusual name, would write it down and the resulting list was something that one seldom sees and would hardly be believed, yet the official gazetteer of the postoffice gives the names and is the authority cited. During the campaign letters were sent to persons in every one of the towns which are on the list.

Eden, which is in Butler county, should properly come first in the list of towns, and immediately after it would logically come Adam, which is in Lawrence county. Eve is in Greene county and is a promising place, although small. Cain's store is in Pulaski, and this is the first mention of the way in which the first born to woman earned his livelihood after the ejection from the garden. Abel, the second born, is in Laurel county. So much for the beginning. Having gotten fairly started in the list, the following curious connection in names is to be noticed:

Happiness is peculiarly connected with some of the towns, at least as far as the names go, even if the connections do not go further. One ought certainly to be happy in Bliss, which is in Adair county, or in Joy, in Livingston county, and one certainly would not be sad if he lived in Jolly, Daviess county. On the other hand, one would not derive much pleasure from existing in a town which travels under the name of Blood. Blood is in Calloway county, and is said to be an exceedingly peaceable little city.

Caution, Clay county, may possibly be well named if that county's reputation that it was to proceed circumpectly be correct. The inhabitants of Angel, Whitley county, should certainly have good dispositions as well as those who live in Halo, Logan county, or Sugar, Calloway county. Sweet, in Bath county, is another town which ought to be productive of good living. In contrast with these comes Ice, in Letcher county, and Snow, in Clinton county. These two places are not in it with Summer Shade, which is in Metcalfe county, as that is a tolerably warm place. Pomp, in Morgan county, has its opposite in Poverty, which is in McLean county. The man who named Aloes, in Metcalfe county, must have been tired and lonesome when he fixed this sad name to it.

Awe, in Lewis county, suggests a subdued feeling, while Faith, in McLean county, and Hope, in Montgomery county, give one a sense of rest and confidence. If one does not get all one wants there, one can still go to Balm, in Fleming county, and there find relief. Cash, in Hardin county, and Coin in Pulaski county, suggest wealth, although they are not now towns in which capitalists reside. Coy, in Marshall county, and Cyclone, in Monroe county, reach the opposite extremes, while Jamboree, Pike county, certainly suggests a hilarious time. The following are some of the other names which are out of the ordinary:

Alpha, Clinton county; Backbone, in Elliott county; Bar, Henry county; Barefoot, Nicholas county; Bet, Carter county; Blaze, Morgan county; Bruin, Elliott county; Bud, Wayne county; Bug, Hickman county; Buzzard, Pulaski county; Bush, Laurel county; Nancy, Pulaski county; Choice, Clay county; Coal, Johnson county; Doorway, Owsley county; Firebrick, Lewis county; Sideview, Montgomery county; Fed, Floyd county; Freedom, Barren county; Stop, Grayson county; Walt, Wayne county, and O. K. and Jumbo, Lincoln county.

PERILS OF LAND AND SEA.

Capt. Willnef's Remarkable Escape shows what to do in time of Trouble.

For many years Capt. Willnef, says the Times, of Gloucester, Mass., was one of the best known seamen in the Gloucester Fleet. The catarrhal troubles which he suffered for 15 years made him dread the nights at sea being unable to lie down and sleep on account of the constant catarrhal dripping.

Captain Willnef went to different hospitals for treatment, but could get no lasting benefit. He constantly raised yellow and green phlegm and his trouble became so unbearable and nauseating that he was ashamed to go out in company. When despairing of ever getting relief, his wife purchased a Hyomei outfit for him, and trying it before going to bed, he enjoyed the first whole night's sleep for 10 years. Capt. Willnef says, "I have used less than two bottles of Hyomei and have been cured by the remedy." Hyomei kills the germs of catarrh and makes lasting and permanent cures. Penny sells Hyomei under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief.

To The Democracy of Lincoln County.

A short time after Isaac Herrie announced as a candidate for reelection to the office of jailer, I stated through the newspapers that he had agreed with me in 1901 that if I would not make a contest against him for the nomination, which I was about to do, and support him, that he would not run for office the second time, but would support me. In his published reply to this statement he admitted that he had agreed not to run, but claimed that the conditions of the agreement were different from what I had stated and that I had failed to comply with them. I am reliably informed that he has since denied on several occasions that he ever made an agreement of any kind. To settle the dispute between us as to whether or not an agreement was made and also the terms of it, I submit the following statement of three disinterested witnesses:

"On the 10th day of June, 1901, we heard the following agreement between Isaac Herrie and Dink Farmer, both of whom claimed to be the nominee for jailer: It was agreed that Farmer should make no further claim for the nomination and would help Herrie in his race, and that Herrie would not run for the office the second time, but would be for Farmer and help in his race. James C. Reid, Gus McCormack, M. S. Baughman."

The following statements show that I complied with my part of the contract: "We, the undersigned voters of Lincoln county, certify that Dink Farmer urged us to vote for Isaac Herrie at the November election, 1901: J. M. Pettus, W. G. Raines, W. G. Adams, Henry Kittle, J. T. Munday, C. W. Raines, W. J. Kirkpatrick, E. Brackett Isaac Brackett, Thomas F. Hall."

And also the following: "Dink Farmer and I rode through Lincoln county together several days before the November election, 1901, electioneering for the democratic ticket. During that time I heard him ask a great many men to vote for Isaac Herrie for jailer. Jas. Bursae."

As I stated in my former card, I counted the ballots on the day they were destroyed as the law requires, in the presence of the chairman of the county committee, and also of John Pepples and my son, Wallace Farmer, and there was a majority of seven votes in my favor, which shows that my claim to the nomination in 1901 was just. A mistake was made by some of the election officers in making the count on the day of the election.

I understand Mr. Herrie has said he will give a $100 reward if any one will find a paper signed by him agreeing not to run. I have never said he signed a paper, but if he will go before some officer and swear that he did not agree verbally not to run, I will withdraw from the race. DINK FARMER.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

A 100 to 1 shot loaded at Bennings. Eggs are said to be worth 50c a dozen in New York.

FOR SALE—Two-horse sweep power, new, at half price. This office. 3c. Thirty yearling cattle for sale. Will weigh 800 pounds and are extra good. M. M. Sandidge, Milledgeville, Ky. C. G. K. Billings has bought Major Delmar of E. E. Smathers for $15,000. Smathers paid $40,000 for him last year.

A fawn colored Jersey heifer, about eight months old, left a few days ago. Liberal reward for her return. Dr. Steele Bailey, Stanford, Ky.

A J. Rogers, of Tennessee, bought of Mack Ransdell 24 yearling mules at $77.50 and 12 from W. H. Whitenack at $92.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

A yellow Jersey cow with very short horns and about 11 years old left my place about Oct. 12. Reward for her return. J. C. Robinson, Hubble, Ky.

A sow about a year old, very thin, weighing possibly 75 pounds, came to my place, the Silas Anderson farm, a month ago. Owner can get her by paying for this notice and her keep. Wm. Sprinkles, Rowland.

An Illinois farmer plowed up an old feed lot of ten acres and raised a paying crop of corn. The corn was drilled in rows of 21 inches apart and a kernel every nine inches in the row. The yield was an average of 180 bushels per acre.

R. H. Crow sold 25 shags, averaging 150 pounds, at 4c per pound; Lunsford Yandell sold 107 cattle, averaging 1,500 pounds, to Ora Powell, representing Swift & Co., at $4.80. Chas. Caldwell sold 100 export cattle, averaging about 1,500 lbs., to Ora Powell, at $4.80.—Advocate.

LANCASTER COURT—There were about 75 cattle on the Lancaster market yesterday and most of them changed hands. James Roberts sold to Lee, of Boyle, 30 yearlings at $2.70 and to Victor Lear 19 heifers at $2.20. A bunch of yearlings brought $7.25. Mules were in demand, but the horse market was quiet.

Democrats, Friends And Co-Workers.

I haven't been able to get to talk to you on account of illness, therefore I use this method of addressing you. I sincerely hope you will stand by my son, J. C. Lynn, in the democratic primary of Dec. 3rd. A vote for George W. DeBord for sheriff means a vote for my son and I trust that you will help him in this race. When you befriend him you befriend me, for true parents think more about their children's welfare than they do their own. I trust that you will be as true to him as I have been to the democratic party, the party that I love so well and which I believe the great common people of the country can derive the most benefit from. I am sure I will feel very grateful to you for your support of Mr. DeBord for sheriff and at the same time it will help my son, Jesse. Come out and help him get the half loaf he is striving to attain next Saturday, Dec. 3rd. Sincerely yours, J. E. LYNN.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by all druggists."

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

The wife of A. C. Salles, of Somerset, is dead.

George Delph was killed by the cars near Jellico.

George W. Welch is dead at Breeding, Adair county.

Capt. S. M. Boone is a candidate for police judge of Danville.

Mrs. S. P. Debaun is dead at Cornishville, Mercer county.

John C. Eagland, a former resident of Mercer county, is dead in Missouri.

Mark Hardin bought of H. B. Ferrell and G. T. Blankenship 40 hogs at 3c.

Nazareth Academy, in Nelson county, is to be beautified by a new convent, the one now in use being too small.

Dr. H. S. Doolin, a Somerset dentist, received the contents of a shot gun in his arm and hand while hunting with a careless friend.

"Bud" Waddle, a well-known citizen of Somerset, dropped dead of apoplexy. He was the secretary of the Somerset Water Co. and one of the cleverest and best-liked men in his town.

The new bank at Brodhead will begin business about Jan. 2d. The new building, which is now receiving the finishing touches, was built by our contractor, Fritz Krueger, is a thing of beauty and a big addition to that thriving town.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Mrs. Graham Price, of Danville, instituted the chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy at Lancaster and 14 names were enrolled. The following officers were chosen: Mrs. Alex Doty, president; Mrs. H. C. Berring, vice-president; Mrs. S. C. Debnay, recording secretary; Miss Susie Haecher, treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Royston, corresponding secretary.

A Corbin special says: Mat Earle, the supposed murderer of the Curd brothers, shot and killed Will Earls and Arthur Adams. Will Earls had sworn out a warrant for the arrest of Mat Earle. The warrant was then put in his and Adams' hands to execute. This they attempted to do, but on going near the place where the Curd brothers were shot, were themselves shot and killed.

Circuit court has adjourned at Somerset after a busy session of five weeks. Seven persons were convicted of felony—Rich Taylor, murder, two years; Alvey Cundiff, malicious shooting, one year; Avery Freeman, murder, life; Ed Hughes, murder, 14 years; S. H. Sladden, grand larceny, one year; William Wilson, 12 years; Wm. Cooper, robbery, two years. The grand jury returned 80 indictments.

To the Democratic Voters of Lincoln County.

I see in Tuesday's issue of the INTERIOR JOURNAL that Mr. Wood comes out in a card stating that he and Mr. McCormack have formed a combine for the assessor's office and asks the democrats of the county to vote for them. He further states that all of his opponents have appointed deputies. I wish to say that that statement is utterly false. I have appointed no deputies, formed no combinations with any one, nor do I expect to. I also understand that another of my opponents is making an appeal to secret societies, such as the Odd Fellows, Maizees, etc., claiming their support because he is a member. Now these organizations are all right and do a vast amount of good and I am heartily in sympathy with them and appeal to them and all good people on my own merits, upon which I expect to stand or fall. Whether successful or unsuccessful in this election, I shall always feel grateful to all those who have encouraged and supported me in this election. I can't think the democrats of this county will support a combine when one of the cardinal principles of the democratic party is opposition to trusts and combines. Respectfully, D. C. ALLEN.

CEDAR CREEK.

Louis Whitte and Wm. Dyehouse are boring a well near their mill trying to find water.

Rev. Hatchies, of Preachersville, preached a splendid sermon at Sugar Grove Sunday. Rev. John Pence has closed his meeting at Sugar Grove.

Miss Sadie Woods, daughter of Wm. Woods, died last Saturday of consumption, aged 23. She had been a sufferer all her life. She was raised by her aunt, Mrs. Plummer, her mother having died in infancy.

Mrs. Thoma McFadden has been in feeble health, but is better. Mrs. Sam Chandler visited her mother at Cook's Springs. Miss Thoma Bryant is at home from Garrard. Mrs. Mollie Manuels with her daughter in Garrard.

Moving seems to be the order of the day. Dick Baker has sold his farm and moved to the Turnball place near the depot. C. G. Ware is moving to Turnersville and George Cummins will occupy the Ware property. Others contemplate moving.

Croup is said to be almost epidemic in
